

IGF 2024 MAG Meeting V
Action items & next steps

14 March 2024 | 14:00 UTC | Online

1. Updates from the Secretariat

- The Secretariat informed the MAG about the new PNAI consultant that will start beginning of the following week.
- The second face to face Open Consultations and MAG meeting will take place from 26 to 28 June 2024 in Geneva.
- The call for session proposals would be launched by the Secretariat as soon as the MAG found consensus on the IGF 2024 subtheme descriptions and on the workshop proposal form and manual.

Actions

- ➔ The Secretariat to launch the call for session proposals (including for village booth proposal and remote hubs) beginning of next week.

2. Approval of the IGF 2024 sub-theme description and the Call for Workshop Proposals

- The MAG provided comments and suggestions on the draft sub-theme description from the first Open Consultations and MAG meeting. It was ensured that all issues from the call for thematic input fit distinctively under each category.
- The co-facilitators of the working group (WG) on workshop process shared the updated IGF 2024 workshop submission form, as well as the IGF 2024 workshop manual.
- The agreed sub-theme description has been posted on the IGF website and included in the IGF workshop manual.
- Following the launch of the call for session proposals, the WG on workshop processes will meet to discuss the IGF 2024 workshop evaluation form and criteria.

Actions

- ➔ The working group on workshop process will finalize the documents including the feedback shared during the call (mainly on (gender) diversity and the reference to the IGF intersessional work affiliation) and will share them with the MAG the following Monday in order to launch the call by Tuesday, 19 March.

3. Setting the strategic vision for the IGF

- The Chair reminded participants that the Leadership Panel's main task is to develop strategic recommendations and therefore the MAG working group on strategy should narrow its scope and focus on our strategic vision for 2024 and 2025. The Chair gave the floor to the co-facilitators of the MAG working group on strategy (MAG WG-Strategy).
- MAG members were reminded and invited to join the MAG WG-Strategy call taking place on the same evening.
- Besides the active participation of the MAG in the ongoing WSIS+20 consultations and GDC process, the MAG WG-Strategy co-facilitators made a call to increase transparency of internal IGF processes for future annual IGFs (e.g., by communicating decisions in a streamlined approach, and by providing a space for the IGF community to openly address concerns with the MAG, such as the selection process of IGF host countries, visa related issues or the overall facilitation of community participation).

- It was suggested to create a MAG timeline for 2024 including key deadlines of all relevant tasks for the MAG and provide an overview of important milestones.

Actions

- ➔ Interested MAG members are welcome to join the MAG WG-Strategy call on 14 March at 19:00 UTC.
