

12th Brazilian IGF – FIB12

Fórum da Internet no Brasil (FIB)

1. General Information

Date: May 31th to June 3rd, 2022
City: Natal – Rio Grande do Norte
Region: Northeast

Website: <https://forumdainternet.cgi.br/2022/>

Twitter: <https://twitter.com/forumbr?lang=en>

2. Summary

- . Organized and promoted by the Brazilian Internet Steering Committee (CGI.br) and the Brazilian Network Information Center (NIC.br), since 2011
- . Multistakeholder Organizing Committee (“GT Forum”), composed of 8 members from 4 different sectors, is responsible for decision-making
- . FIB12 was the first in-person edition since the beginning of the pandemic
- . Online and onsite audience record
- . Some cases of COVID-19 were identified
- . Stakeholders and organizations held independent side events during the week

3. Workshops

3.1 About the Call for Workshops

- . Open from 2021 October 4th to December 16th
- . Submission Criteria: speakers’ list must include at least one from each sector of CGI.br:
 - . Governmental
 - . Private Sector
 - . Civil Society
 - . Scientific and Technological Community
- . 59 workshop proposals received
- . Main themes:
 - . Data, information and digital content
 - . Diversity and inclusion
 - . Internet, Society and Citizenship
 - . Privacy, data protection and cybersecurity

3.2. Evaluation Process

- . External Multistakeholder Evaluation Commission
 - . 44 members
 - . 11 from each sector, from all Brazilian regions

- . Each received proposal was assessed by eight members of the Multistakeholder Evaluation Commission (two from each sector)
- . Final list of selected workshops validated by the Multistakeholder Organizing Committee without any changes

3.3 Selected Workshops

- . 27 proposals selected
 - . 12 from the Scientific and Technological Community
 - . 10 from the Civil Society
 - . 4 from Governmental Sector (all received proposals from this sector were selected)
 - . 1 from the private sector (only two proposals received from this sector)
- . Themes' distribution:
 - . 9 - Diversity and inclusion
 - . 7 - Data, information and digital content
 - . 4 - Internet, Society and Citizenship
 - . 3 - Legal, regulatory and extraterritorial issues
 - . 2 - Infrastructure, access and connectivity
 - . 2 - Privacy and Security

4. FIB12 Program

- . 27 workshops proposed by the Brazilian community
- . Three main sessions organized by GT Fórum
- . One cultural session (face-to-face only)
- . Hackathon "Cidadão na Rede"

4.1 List of organized Workshops

- . Inclusion beyond Pride Month: how to amplify LGBTQIAP+ voices on the Internet
- . Artificial Intelligence as a tool to combat misinformation in electoral contexts
- . The risk of the algorithm: the use of personal data protection impact reports in the fight against algorithmic discrimination
- . Self-regulation in perspective: political communication and content moderation
- . Civil Liability in the risk society: artificial intelligence, damage law and new trends
- . The Amazon on the Internet: Data, networks and activism
- . AI in Education: The Importance of Critical Data Literacy
- . Viral Data: Legacy of COVID-19 in technology acquisitions by public authorities in Brazil
- . Strategies for awareness and education on privacy and data protection in the post-LGPD context
- . Facial Recognition: considerations on the banning of this digital technology in the context of Brazilian public security
- . Personal data and the modernization of criminal investigations in the Brazilian legislature
- . Electoral process and disinformation: limits and consequences of political activities

- . “Dark patterns” and manipulative practices on the Internet: the need for awareness and protection of holders
- . Well-being and the use of technology for the world of work: developing skills and educating young people and adolescents
- . Challenges in the development and sustainability of open-source collaborative platforms
- . Regulatory Challenges of Artificial Intelligence
- . Legislative threats to the civil liability model of providers in the Brazilian Civil Rights Framework for the Internet
- . Building a real-time digital inclusion strategy
- . Working with and through the Internet: what can the challenges of the present say about the future?
- . Hate speech against women on the Internet: diagnoses and solutions for the Brazilian case
- . Between investigations and vulnerabilities: risks and regulation of government hacking in Brazil
- . Guidelines for international data transfer: multistakeholder contribution to the ANPD agenda
- . Metaverse - a technical, regulatory and legal analysis: are Brazilian network and legal framework ready?
- . The application of the LGPD for small processing agents and leakage of personal data
- . Governance for a data-driven economy: (inter)national trends
- . Digital transformation and health: potentialities and limits in the light of SUS principles
- . Online child protection in the pandemic: tools and best practices for a safe environment

4.2 FIB 12 Main Sessions:

- . Diversity and Gender in ICTs: an agenda for inclusion and representation
- . Regulation of platforms and compensation for journalistic activity
- . 30 years of ECO-92 and the future of the Internet in Brazil: a tribute to Tadao Takahashi

5. Audience

- . 1,400 participants registered
- . 520 people participating in person
- . 400 remote participants who confirmed their presence
- . Around 900 certificates were issued (for onsite and remote participants)

6. Outputs

- . Each workshop had its report published on the event website
- . Messages only in Brazilian Portuguese
- . Available at <https://forumdainternet.cgi.br/2022/programacao/agenda/2/>