

Communication & Response Time :

Our experience was great in terms of response time from IGF staff, and this is a major gesture. Knowing well, that everyone may be busy with global membership

Online session :

Mixed response: We had people (IGF Secretariat) responding within hours of request but the online platform did not work well and we could not onboard speakers or even attendees couldn't register for the online session.

Yearly support for activities :

Support is good but it is time that we start monthly call within DCs, and have inter coalition partnerships for doing joint meetings and knowledge papers.

Overall, i see that we made an impact through our work

With best wishes
